

Q: Website address please?

A: AdvanceKnox.org/UDO

Q: Where / how do I see my current / future property classifications is it possible to get a hard copy of my location?

A: There is a link to the draft of the map on the Advance Knox website under the "Feedback" tab (link: <https://advanceknox.org/udo/feedback>). You can search for your property and leave comments there. There is also the ability to view a side-by-side comparison of existing and proposed zoning by choosing the "Compare Proposed and Existing Zoning Maps" tab at the bottom of the screen. For print copies, please reach out to Planning at either 865-215-2500 or contact@advanceknox.org for assistance.

Q: For new zoning if one has 2-4 residential I saw on map it will become Rural Residential question: Is there a difference?

A: You can review the information about how equivalent zones were determined on the project website. If you have additional questions, please contact the project team at contact@advanceknox.org.

Q: When will Article 16 or 18 be available for public review?

A: Article 16 is part of the Module D content that will be released later in April. Article 18 will be available at a later time.

Q: Why is there so little open space on the zoning map? We have been asking for conservation and preservation.

A: The Open Space district is different from open spaces or conservation areas. Future articles will address open space regulations for new developments.

Q: Could you remind us of the due date for feedback on the proposed zoning map? Thank you.

A: The comment function on the map will remain open.

Q: All, April 5 is Easter Sunday. Could we have one extra day so that the due date occurs when staff is in the office and not on a holiday?

A: Yes, we will extend the survey cutoff to midnight on Monday, April 6.

Q: The meeting description said that this would focus on the update to the County's landscaping, signs, and stormwater regulations (Module D). Did I miss those details?

A: Today's meeting covered an overview of what you can expect to see in those articles. We will release the content later in April so that we don't have overlapping feedback opportunities and deadlines.
